Fixed Loop Arm

Perfectly positioned to rest your arms on, whilst low enough to tuck under a boardroom table or desk. Full wrap around back design to provide strength and prevent twisting of the one piece shell

Perfect Seating Position

Single piece high quality mesh for comfort and durability. Reduces back and neck pain and boost productivity.

Single Piece Shell

Uniquely curved frame, perfectly wrapped by high quality black mesh ensures the up-most seating comfort. Along with a foamed front edge for additional comfort on the users thighs.

Single Lever Mechanism

Simple and discrete, with height adjustment lockable floating recline. Allows the user to sit in an upright position for using the keyboard, while providing a comfortable rocking/reclining motion during meetings, phone calls and reading activities.
